

Japan-India Soft Power Study Group

After 12 web conferences, seven members from the India Foundation delegation will be welcomed to Tokyo in December 2023, as originally planned, with a conference to be held on security, politics, and economics, as well as a conference on religion, culture, and art in Kyoto. They will also visit members of the Japan-India Parliamentary Friendship League, Japan-India friendship organizations, Japanese think tanks, Chandra Bose's cemetery, temples and shrines, and Buddhist temples. In February 2024, seven Japanese members are scheduled to visit Delhi to hold a conference and visit various Japan-India friendship organizations and think tanks.
