

Diplomacy Study Group

---

The impact of COVID-19 meant that the meetings of the Diplomacy Study Group, in which approximately fifty people meet face-to-face in closed settings (following the Chatham House Rule), inevitably had to be canceled. We considered the possibility of holding remote meetings online but decided that we wished to maintain the traditional face-to-face format of meetings for this study group if they were going to be held under the “Diplomacy Study Group” title.